Commencement

This Declaration recorded on the 1st January 2019.

Definitions

In this Declaration: NAT&CLC means the Ngyuddadunmardi Ariki Tribal & Common Law Court.

Declaration

The NAT&CLC exists for the benefit of men and women and will safeguard their customary, inherent and inalienable rights under Common Law.

To all living men and women, we hereby stand united and submit this declaration to the Common Law Court 'Book of Deeds' for preservation for all time.

We the people have inherent birth rights, established by our creator, which protect us from harm, loss and injury from others. For many years now, men and women have been subjected to criminal and fraudulent behaviour by the state's actions which have been imposed upon us, against our will, by both criminal coercion and legal deception. Fear and fiction have thus combined to bind us into slavery.

Book Reference of Fact: Fruit from a Poisonous Tree, Chapter 2 – Magicians, Secrets that were never to be revealed. Melvin Stamper. "The people walking in darkness have seen a great light; on those living in the land of deep darkness a light has dawned." Isaiah 9:2

The state has committed attacks, injustices, killings, robberies, theft, unlawful imprisonment and countless other enormous outrages against the people sparing no one on account of age, sex or position. To this robbery, slaughter and plunder they give the lying name of "Government", they have stripped us of our ancient freedoms and call it "progress" and "environmental sustainability".

We, the people can no longer endure such assaults on our loved ones and personal freedoms and hereby confirm our customary laws, our inherent inalienable rights to stand under the jurisdiction of Common Law. Based, as it is, on the timeless laws which govern the conduct of men and women and were established by our creator in days of old and remembered and loved by our forefathers as they built our nations. We will hold to this without ceasing for any man.

Borrowing from the declaration of our ancestors, made in Arobroath in 1320, we declare that, as long as but a hundred of us remain alive, never will we on any conditions be brought under mandatory rule by legal statute. It is in truth not for glory, nor riches, nor honours that we are fighting, but for freedom – for that alone, which no honest man gives up but with life itself.

The NAT&CLC is founded on God's law and natural law principles therefore it stands as the highest court in the land.

Decisions at the NAT&CLC will be reached by using a trial by jury process, where a unanimous vote will establish a lawful remedy.

The existence of NAT&CLC is due to the demand from men and women to obtain a lawful remedy within Paremata Rangihou & Aotearoha Sovereign Nation State & Embassy. In the main, the statutory process does not safeguard the rights of men and women, tending to protect vested interests instead of the Public Interest.

All men and women within Paremata Rangihou & Aotearoha Sovereign Nation State & Embassy can access the NAT&CLC by recording their birth details on our website site.

Any man or woman within Paremata Rangihou & Aotearoha Sovereign Nation State & Embassy having suffered a wrong and having sufficient evidence to confirm this, can convene Common Law Court. In raising a lawful claim against the wrongdoer, the man or woman will be representing the people.

Where land and property is recorded under Common Law, any claims that were previously attached to the title would be void under the statutory process. The Common Law Court reserves the right for a man, a woman or the individual in control, to raise a claim against the title. Any claims made against a title will have to be verified by a jury of the Common Law Court before being attached.

All decisions of the Common Law Court are unimpeachable and cannot be altered by a statutory court. The only way that a decision from the Common Law Court may be challenged, is if there is evidence of jury tampering, or it can be established that crucial evidence was withheld from the jury, during the trial.

If a statutory court were to interfere, fail to recognise or abide by a Common Law Court decision, this may be a denial of Common Law Rights and a Common Law crime against the people.

This declaration is signed below by a sample of men and women who stand united under the jurisdiction of the Common Law Court. This declaration is hereby recorded in to the Common Law Court 'Book of Deeds' on the 1st January 2019 for preservation for all time.

Universal Declaration of Human Rights

Preamble

Whereas recognition of the inherent dignity and of the equal and inalienable rights of all members of the human family is the foundation of freedom, justice and peace in the world,

Whereas disregard and contempt for human rights have resulted in barbarous acts which have outraged the conscience of mankind, and the advent of a world in which human beings shall enjoy freedom of speech and belief and freedom from fear and want has been proclaimed as the highest aspiration of the common people,

Whereas it is essential, if man is not to be compelled to have recourse, as a last resort, to rebellion against tyranny and oppression, that human rights should be protected by the rule of law,

Whereas it is essential to promote the development of friendly relations between nations,

Whereas the peoples of the United Nations have in the Charter reaffirmed their faith in fundamental human rights, in the dignity and worth of the human person and in the equal rights of men and women and have determined to promote social progress and better standards of life in larger freedom,

Whereas Member States have pledged themselves to achieve, in cooperation with the United Nations, the promotion of universal respect for and observance of human rights and fundamental freedoms,
